Meet The Principal

Tracey Parker

Bachelor of Dance Education, RAD RTS, Glenwood Tap Certified, Arcobatic Arts Certified

Tracey is successful international performer and choreographer whom has performed with three professional dance companies including;

- The Imprint Performance Company where she performed at Magic Music Days at Disneyland USA, Universal Studios, Knott's Berry Farm, Back To The Beats at Bobby's Performing Arts School and Dance Excellence for Annie McQuitty Productions Showcase at the Charles M Schulz Theatre. Whilst touring with the company, Tracey was also offered a position with the Young Americans, a touring company that specialises in dance, singing, acting and musical theatre.

- Sydney's premier mentorship company, youMove Company where she worked with choreographers, such as Kay Armstrong, Anton, Ian Colless, Venettia Millar, Paul Selwyn Norton, Nelly, Kevin Privett. With the company, Tracey has performed in youMove's 2012 & 2011 Sydney Festival performances of Thinking About Forever – a collaborative project with the Australian Chamber Orchestra - and Loungers as a pop up artist, Parramatta String Players and LAKME- Parramatta Imaginings collaboration with Opera Australia and Polyartistry, 4Tell in conjunction with Form Dance and their Dance Bite's program and many educational workshops.

- Supporting her belief in the importance of quality Dance Education, Tracey completed a Bachelor of Dance Education at the Australian College of Physical Education. During her time at the college, Tracey was accepted into the ACPE Dance Company which created opportunities to perform at Soft Collision, Breathing Backwards and graduation productions. Opportunities at the college facilitated Tracey to work with successful choreographers, such as Emma Saunders, John Bancan-Wrzos, Jess Taylor, John Timmins & Marnie Palomares. Whilst at the College, Tracey was awarded the ACPE Blues Award for her excellence and contribution to Dance.

Tracey has also been an Assistant Choreographer at the Catholic Education's Dance Program - 'Captive', which allowed her to mentor students and choreograph dance works for many different events. Tracey has taught Dance in many Department of Education and Catholic Schools in NSW such as McDonald College and Westfield Sport High School, thus has a broad range of knowledge, skills and experience to instil inspiration, creativity and motivation into your child at Parker's Performing Art's Centre.

Showcase & Costume Hire

PERFORMANCES & END OF YEAR SHOWCASE

At PPAC, we believe that a child's participation in dance should be an enjoyable experience that promotes self confidence, self esteem and self identity. We provide many opportunities for students to build these attributes such as Community Events & Festivals throughout the year.

At the end of each year our students perform at our annual showcase which in turn helps them gain self awareness, build team work amongst peers and build confidence to show that true PPAC Spirit of 'Be Brave, Try Something New & Challenge Yourself'.

PERFORMANCE COSTUME HIRE

At PPAC try to keep costume costs to a minimum and we help ease the financial burden at the end of the year by adding a 'Costume Levy' of $20.00 to both Term 2 & 3 Invoices. This cost includes: measuring your child, materials, dress making, shipping, accessories, hair accessories, props and costume bag.

In the rare case that your child will not be participating in the concert and you notify the office of this BEFORE the start of Term 3, you will be entitled to a refund of all levies paid. Costume levies must be paid at the same time as class fees each term.

All Stockings required for performances are available for purchase on our website

Uniform - Ballet

Our PPAC uniform unites us as a studio and we believe wearing a uniform to class helps promote self-esteem and pride, whilst maintaining the schools high standard of neatness and professionalism. It also solves those all too often fashion dilemmas! The Studio uniform is available for purchase at the studio and our website. We always recommend new students trialing our classes to confirm which styles they will be attending prior to purchasing the uniform.

To purchase from the pre-loved basket contact the teacher, do not put cash directly into the basket

SECURITY

Parker's Performing Arts Centre cannot take responsibility for students before or after their scheduled classes. It is up to the parents and guardians to make sure the students arrive and leave safely by making sure that you are inside the building ready to pick up your child when their class ends. Children should not be asked to go out to the car park alone at any time. Please note; that teachers will only remain at the studio for 10 minutes after the completion of their last class and therefore parents need to collect their child/children on time. Please feel free to contact us if there's a problem, so that we may assist to ensure your child/children(s) safety. Thank you for your co-operation.

PPAC STUDIO POLICY

PPAC Teachers are Working With Children Certified. This is an employee requirement set by the studio to ensure our children are being trained and supervised in a safe environment. Teachers are hired based on their experience, qualifications and rapport with our students. The studio encourages feedback from students and parents. Please contact Miss Tracey in writing to address any formal complaints, issues or concerns.

All invoices must be paid in full and on time. Failure to submit payment by the date advised may result in your child's suspension from class participation until fees are paid. A Late fee of $20.00 may also be applied to any overdue payments.

PPAC invoices per term. If parents/students decide to discontinue lessons mid term you are still obligated to honour the fees for this class for the entire term. Any extended holidays or illness should be discussed with Miss Tracey in order to receive exemption from this rule. Parents are responsible for their children during the times before and after class. Teacher supervision extends only to enrolled students during lesson time. Students and their parents are also liable for any damages caused to any PPAC hired premises caused by their child. Parents are invited to watch PPAC lessons in the final week of terms 1, 2 and 3. This is to ensure the best possible learning environment of all students only.

Parents inherently give permission for All PPAC teachers or any other teacher to administer First Aid to students or in extreme cases call an ambulance for your dancer at parental expense.

In order to assist in the execution of correct alignment and / or placement of dance movements PPAC staff may on occasion have to physically position, move or adjust part of a dancer's body to perfect technique. Parents acknowledge and inherently accept that this is an essential part of dance tuition to ensure your dancer understands and learns the correct techniques of dance.

During the year PPAC Students they may be photographed or videoed for a variety of reasons. These recordings / photographs may then be used for advertising or promotional purposes, as well as being posted on the studio website. If you do not wish for your child's image to be used please notify Miss Tracey in writing otherwise your consent is assumed. By taking part in PPAC classes, performances or external events both parents and students recognise there is inherent risk in doing so, therefore PPAC is released from any legal liability and/or responsibility resulting from your attendance and/or participation in any class, performance, activity or event or the actions and negligence of any other persons.

Participation in our end of year concert is assumed, unless parent / guardian notifies Miss Tracey in writing that the student will not be participating in the concert. This means all parents will honour any costume fees associated with participating in the end of year concert.
